The D.G. is an ex-officio member - "Heavy official business" the ground urged by the D.G. is applicable to most of the other members. The work of the Insurance office is such that it is desirable to do everything in open daylight & the association & sentiment of a member of high office is very desirable. In my opinion the D.G.'s resignation of membership cannot be accepted.

The D.G.I. told me that as a member he had to examine carefully every proposal & record his opinion. This involved a great deal of personal work which was different from the work of members of committees who usually had to attend meetings merely. The work of the D.G.I. is very heavy. He may therefore
